7th SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY - SUMMER SERIES BEGINS

10am All Age Worship: 'Gathering Together'

2 Corinthians. 12:2-10

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows— was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations.

Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Mark 6 1-13

Jesus came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him. Then Jesus said to them, “Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house.” And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.” So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

This is our event for older people in the community who would like a week of fellowship, fun and food. Application forms are at the back of church.

What's your favourite hymn?

Fill in one of the sheets to let us know about some of the hymns that mean a lot to you and why. We'll use some of them during our summer series about different parts of worship.

Hosting at baptisms - are you able to help?

Please speak to one of the churchwardens if you think you can spare some time on occasional Sundays after the service.

We would like to start a rota for hosts.

REFRESHMENTS!!

Please consider putting your name on the rota. We are once again in a position where you may find there are no refreshments after the service. There is a new sign up sheet at the back of church. Training will be given.

ITEMS FOR NEWSHEET

If there is anything that you would like to be included in this newsheet please email office@speh.org.uk before Wednesday morning prior. Any last minute prayer requests can be received on Saturday morning before midday either e-mailed as above or phoned in on 01784 449570

Summer Series

Over the summer we'll be putting the spotlight on different parts of our worship, to help us think about the shape of our service. Next week we start with 'Gathering Together'. See poster to find out about the whole series.
